RAINHA COLLAR

A Victorian-inspired crochet collar, Rainha (Queen) explores the contrasts between delicacy and darkness, elegance and mystery.

The delicacy of the lacework contrasts with the possible addition of a decorative spider. The spider can be attached to the collar as a removable element.

Without the spider, the collar has a more classic and sophisticated appearance, closely connected to its Victorian inspiration. With the spider, it takes on a more theatrical, dark and provocative character, in keeping with the Halloween season.

Without fastening off, turn the piece to the right to work along the side (or height) of the collar, creating the buttonholes. Each row counts as 1 stitch.

You will have 4 buttonholes. Work 1 more sc, now into the row worked in colour B.
